

The Seussification of Romeo & Juliet Audition piece:

Their ancient grudge match happened before the story,
and rekindled hatred made their feud more gory
Straight from the loins of those mentioned above
Popped kid one...

And kid two...

And they fell in love.

Kid one and kid two, later, each took their life

As a result of their parental strife.

Their families to fighting and feuding were fettered

But, somehow the death of their kids made it better?

The families were pals now, they'd all go on hikes

Mud wrestle....

Play lawn darts....

And pedal their bikes.

Now we're not saying that taking your life

Is an antidote to a family tumult and strife.

That's an idea that sure can make plays sell

But in real life, it just doesn't work out well.

So kids, never try this. Forget what you've heard
